

Per Borgklint
Proposed New Board Member

Per Borgklint, a Swedish citizen born in 1972, is proposed as a new Board member of SinterCast AB by the Nomination Committee. Mr Borgklint holds a MScBA in Finance from Jönköping International Business School.

Mr Borgklint has held several executive positions in Swedish and international businesses including Ericsson, Tele2 and Canal+. He has also served as an advisor to private equity firms and software companies, as well as start-ups across different industries. He currently serves as CEO of Kloudville, a Canadian SaaS company.

Mr Borgklint is independent of the company, its executive management, and the major shareholders. Mr Borgklint does not currently hold any SinterCast shares.